DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

The Response, filed on December 16, 2009, has been entered and acknowledged by the Examiner. Claims 1 and 6-27 are pending in the instant application.

Drawings

. The Examiner would like to remind the Applicant that the objection to drawings is still present. However, the Examiner understands that the Applicant is still in the process of submitting drawings.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1 and 6-27 are allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Regarding claim 1, the references of the Prior Art of record fails to teach or suggest the combination of the limitations as set forth in claim 1, specifically for the limitation of the emission layer on the anode side is directly adjacent to an electrically conductive layer, wherein both said at least one matrix material and said at least one phosphorescent emitter are low-molecular-weight defined compounds having a molecular weight of less than 10,000 g/mol and wherein said electrically conductive layer is said anode or an organic hole-injection layer comprising a doped conductive polymer or a doped triarylamine derivative in combination with other claimed features of the present claimed invention.

Regarding claims 6-27, claims 6-27 are allowable for the reasons given in claim 1 because of their dependency status from claim 1.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Long et al. (US PUB 2003/0020073) is cited to show organic light-emitting devices with blocking and transport layers.

Lin et al. (US 6,759,145) is cited to show a white light emitting organic electroluminescent device and method for fabricating the same.

Anandan et al. (US 7,071,614) is cited to show electron and hole modulating electrodes in organic light emitting diodes.

This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters:

Formal drawings should be submitted.

Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 25 USPQ 74, 453 O.G. 213, (Comm'r Pat. 1935).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.
